

Sewing Instructions: So you are feeling more confident in your sewing lines, so try these; use your quick tips. Work with or without fabric, I always recommend working without fabric first to get the feel of your project. So glad you are feeling more comfortable with your sewing skills. Have fun sewing and remember that practice does make perfect!